

General Regulations | 2023

1. Application

These Conditions of Enrolment apply from 1 January 2023 to existing and new enrolments.

2. Provision of Tuition

The school will provide tuition to the student until the earlier of:

- (a) the completion of the first academic year in which the student undertakes Year 12; and
- (b) termination of the enrolment of the student.

However, if Fees and Charges are not paid when due, the school may by notice in writing require the immediate withdrawal of the student from the school and suspend the provision of tuition and all other services until all outstanding Fees and Charges are paid.

3. Payment of Fees and Charges

Parents must pay the Fees and Charges invoiced by the school from time to time. Payment will be made by the date specified in each such invoice. A Fee or Charge will be deemed to have been invoiced if that was sent to a Parent's Address by ordinary mail or by email to a Parent's Email Address.

Fees and Charges are reviewed from time to time. The current Fees and Charges include administration fees of $125 per term in respect of Fees and Charges not paid when due. Confirmation of Enrolment Fees are not refundable.

Parents must also pay a deposit against fees for each student at such amounts and at times as are set by the school from time to time. Deposits paid against fees will be credited against the first instalment of Fees and Charges for a student. Without prejudice to any other rights the school may have, if a student fails to attend the school for the first term for which that Student is enrolled, the deposit against fees will be forfeited to the school absolutely.

Parents may request a flexible payment arrangement in the form of a payment instalment agreement. The school is under no obligation to agree to such a request. Parents must pay fee instalments by the due dates. Repeated failure to meet payment requirements will result in a review of the student's enrolment at Westbourne Grammar School in addition to the cancellation of the payment instalment agreement. At this time, the balance owing to the school will be payable to the school immediately.

If less than one full school term's notice (excluding holiday periods between terms) is given in writing to the principal, of the parents' intention to withdraw the student from the school, all Fees and Charges shall continue to accrue until the later of the date of withdrawal and the expiry date of the requisite notice period to a maximum of one half a quarterly instalment of fees.

Please note: Cash payments are not a preferred payment method.

4. Leave of Absence

Parents must obtain written consent from the school for all planned extended absences of the student from school activities. For planned absences in excess of one term, parents must make application for such consent by not less than one full term's notice in writing to the principal. The request must include proposed dates of absence and the reason for the absence.

Provided that:

- (a) not less than one full term's notice in writing has been given to the principal; and
- (b) the school has consented to the absence; and
- (c) all fees including those referable to the period of absence are paid in full prior to the period of absence;

the fees payable for each full term in which the student is absent shall abate by 50%. Otherwise, there shall be no abatement of fees by reason of any absence.

5. No Abatement

Subject to Clause 4, the Fees and Charges shall not abate:

- (a) as a consequence of any disciplinary action taken by the school.
- (b) whilst the student is not in attendance at the school or in receipt of tuition whether due to withdrawal, suspension, expulsion, leave of absence, illness, or other unspecified circumstances.

6. Termination of Enrolment

Without limiting condition 12, the school may terminate the enrolment of a student:

- (a) immediately by notice in writing to the Parents if:
 - (i) any information provided to the school prior to the enrolment of the student was not accurate in any material respect
 - (ii) the school is not provided with any information which the principal considers would have been material to the school's decision whether to offer enrolment for that Student, and/or the terms upon which such enrolment might have been offered.,
 - (iii) if the principal considers that it is appropriate to do so in the best interests of other students
 - (iv) if the Parents or the student fail to cooperate with the school to the satisfaction of the principal
 - (v) if prior instalments of fees are unpaid at the commencement of any Term
- (b) the school may in its sole discretion terminate the enrolment of a student by giving not less than one term's notice if the principal determines to do so but does not also determine that immediate termination of enrolment is appropriate. The Parents may jointly terminate the enrolment of their student by giving not less than one full term's notice in writing (excluding holiday periods between terms) to the principal.

7. School Rules

Each Parent shall:

- (a) comply with the School Rules in so far as the School Rules relate to Parents
- (b) ensure that the student complies with the School Rules in so far as those School Rules relate to students
- (c) cooperate fully with the school, and without limiting the generality of the forgoing attend such meetings and sessions as the principal may reasonably require
- (d) abide by any disciplinary decision made by the school, subject always to the Parents right to request the principal to review any disciplinary decision in the principal's sole discretion.

8. Discipline

The school may impose such disciplinary action upon a student as the school considers appropriate in its sole discretion.

9. Collection, Use and Disclosure of Personal Information

Westbourne Grammar School collects, holds, and discloses information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988, Australian Privacy Principles, Privacy Data Protection Act 2014 and Health Records Act 2001.

- (a) the school will collect information for the purpose of providing for the educational and general advancement of the student, the administration of the school, the maintenance of the school's records of past, present and future students and the parents and guardians of such students
- (b) information collected will be utilised by the school and its associated organisations
- (c) the school is authorised to disclose the information collected by the school to the associated organisations on the basis that such organisations hold the information and use the information only for the purposes of activities which that organisation customarily undertakes from time to time
- (d) the school is also authorised to publish the student's name and photograph for such purposes as it may reasonably require including in publications and marketing material in accordance with our Photography and Video Policy

Further to this, the school is authorised to disclose information collected by the school to third parties to meet regulatory reporting requirements
- (f) Any instances of suspected data breaches, such as unauthorised access, unauthorised disclosure or loss of personal information that could result in serious harm to an individual, must be reported to the school in accordance with our Notifiable Data Breach Policy.

10. Liability of Parents

The liability of each parent shall be joint and several. The liability of a parent will not be affected by relationship breakdown or by the other parent or any other person failing to make payment for any reason. Each parent shall indemnify the school against all losses, costs and expenses the school suffers or incurs as a consequence of any breach of these regulations, including losses, costs and expenses suffered or incurred as a consequence of any breach of the School Rules by the student.

11. Limitation of Liability

The school accepts no responsibility for any loss of or damage to personal property of the student or any other person. The school accepts no responsibility for the outcome of the tuition and other services to be provided. It makes no representation as to the quality of the tuition or other services to be provided or the outcomes, including academic results, the student will or might achieve. To the fullest extent permitted by law any liability of the school arising out of the provision of the tuition and other services and opportunities provided or to be provided by it is excluded. To the extent that:

- (a) there are any terms, conditions, warranties, or guarantees or the like of this agreement which cannot be excluded by law; and
- (b) it is legally permissible to do so

The liability of the school for breach of any terms, conditions, warranties or guarantees or the like is limited to the cost of supplying the services to be provided by the school again.

12. Preparatory Students

Parents and the student must attend a meeting at the school to assess the student's school readiness in approximately April/May of the year prior to the student commencing preparatory level. Following that meeting the school may in its sole discretion elect to terminate the enrolment of a student or to defer the commencement of a student.

13. Electronic Communications and Authorisations

I/we acknowledge and agree that communications with the school will involve a variety of electronic means. We further agree that:

- (a) all emails sent to an address recorded in the school's records as one of my/our email addresses shall be deemed to have been received by me/us within 48 hours of being sent; and
